The Radlett Music Club has been presenting fine, live music since 1936. We aim to put on a varied programme to appeal to a wide variety of interests. We engage experienced artistes who have already established careers, and talented young performers many of whom go on to achieve considerable success.

Further information about the artistes and the details of the concerts are on our website.

All our concerts are held at the Radlett Centre with its extensive facilities, tiered seating, foyer café and bar. Seats are unreserved so you can choose your favourite spot to sit.

Membership of the Club provides a season ticket which shows a saving of more than 30% over the individual door price of £16. It also includes a free programme at each concert. The membership card is transferable - if you can't come to any concert you can pass it to a friend.

It's easy to sign up, either on the attached form or through the Club website.

The Club is aided by the CAVATINA Chamber Music Trust and is pleased to offer free admission to young people aged 8 to 25 years of age. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

JOHN SUCHET Tchaikovsky - The Man Revealed

Thursday 10 October 2019 at 8pm

John Suchet of ClassicFM fame makes a welcome return to us. This time he will be talking about his most recent book "Tchaikovsky – The Man Revealed" – a tortured genius, a sensitive soul, and a great composer burdened by the weight of his private desires.

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's life – and premature death – has long been mythologised and misunderstood. John Suchet draws back the curtain to show us the real man behind the music.

Discounted copies of John's books will be available at the concert and can be signed by him.
